Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on May 7, 2007 has been entered.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claim 21 and the claims dependent thereon have been allowed because some of the arguments mentioned in the applicants' Remarks filed on May 7, 2007 have been found persuasive. The applicants have persuasively argued that since the Leonard reference (i. e. "Development of a Solvent Extraction Process for Cesium Removal from SRS Tank Waste" by Ralph A. Leonard et al.) teaches a solvent composition that includes BOBCalixC6, Cs-7SBT, trioctylamine and Isopar L (please see Fig. 8 on pg. 759 in Leonard) and since the Wood reference (i. e. "Extraction of Lead and Strontium from Hazardous Waste Streams by Solvent Extraction with 4', 4', (5')-Di-(t-Butyldicyclohexo)-18-Crown-6" by Donald J. Wood et al.) teaches a solvent composition that includes DtBu18C6, TBP and Isopar L, then these cited references do not teach or suggest a mixed extractant solvent that consists of the components recited in applicants' claim 21.

Art Unit: 1754

Claim 43 has been allowed because there is no suggestion in the references of record to modify the process described in the Wood et al. reference (previously mentioned) by including 1-(2,2,3,3-tetrafluoropropoxy)-3-(4-sec-butylphenoxy)-2-propanol in the extraction solvent of the Wood et al. reference.

Any comments considered necessary by the applicants must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Timothy C. Vanoy whose telephone number is 571-272-8158. The examiner can normally be reached on Mon-Fri 8-4:30.
